AT 1.30 P.M. PRECISELY.

Lots on View Tuesday, Nov. 23rd, Wednesday, Nov. 24th, and Mornings of Sale.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

FIRST.—The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute, shall be immediately put up again and resold, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.

SECOND.—No person to advance less than 1s. ; above five pounds, 5s. ; and so on in proportion.

THIRD.—In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.

FOURTH.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5s. in the pound, or more, in part of payment, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required ; in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.

FIFTH.—The lots to be taken away and paid for, whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description, at the buyer's expense and risk, within Two days from the sale ; GLENDINING & CO., Ltd., not being responsible for the correct description genuineness, or authenticity of, or any default or defect in, any lot, and making no warranty whatever.

SIXTH.—To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale, and the remainder of the purchase-money must absolutely be paid on the delivery.

SEVENTH.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited ; all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be resold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.

EIGHTH.—If any owner has placed a reserve on any lot, the auctioneers reserve to themselves the right to publish the fact and price at which it is reserved.

A Field Officer's Gold Medal

FOR THE

Campaign in Java, 1811,

Awarded to Major DAVID FORBES, 1st Battalion 70th Foot.

 Major-General Forbes was born in 1777, and entered the 78th. Highlanders as Ensign when Francis Humberston McKenzie, afterwards Lord Seaforth, raised that regiment in March 1793. Served in Holland in 1794-95, including the Sortie from Nimuguen against the French lines. Action in driving the French across the Vaal at Bommel and at Geldermansel. Accompanied the 78th. to Quiberon Bay, and was at the Taking of Isle Dieu in 1795. To the Cape of Good Hope in 1796, and capture of the Dutch fleet in Saldanha Bay. Proceeded with the regiment to India in November following and served with it during the campaign in Oude in 1798-99; also in part of the Mahratta campaign in 1803, including the storming of Petah of Ahmedunghur and during the siege of the fort. Present in every action in which his regiment was engaged in Java during 1811-13, including the forcing of the enemy's position at Weltewreden, storm of the lines of Cornelis, the heights of Serandole and Djocjocarta. Quelled an insurrection which broke out in the East-end of Java in May 1813, when Lt-Col. Fraser and Capt. Macpherson of the 78th were murdered by the insurgents. Gold Medal for services in Java and five times thanked in General Orders. Served in the East for over 20 years continuously, and on return to Scotland in 1817 was the only Officer who returned out of 42 who left England in 1796, bringing with him only 36 out of 1,200 rank and file. Was made C.B. in 1838, and died at Aberdeen in 1849.
